Foreword

It has often been said that with the heart man conceives, with the head he directs, and with the hand he executes. In these pages we have sought not only to embody pictorially the activities of the year 1951 at Bethany High School, but also to suggest in our title pages that with our hands we strive for many things.

There are the long slender hands of the surgeon, the blunt, strong hands of the farmer, the sensitive hands of an artist, the tapering hands of a woman, the groping hands of a baby. At some time or another all these different hands will reach for many things — mental physical material, or spiritual perfection. To our generation has been given the clay of tomorrow.

What kind of hands do you possess, and for what are you reaching?

Dedication

We, the yearbook staff, wish to dedicate the BRONCHO, '51, to Richard Frazier, a most wonderful music director. During his three previous years he gave much help and encouragement. His call to the service was felt as a great loss to the faculty and student body.
